LARGEST GATHERING YET ASSEMBLED AT SHADOW LAWN HEARS PRESIDENT SPEAK

"Wilson Day" Is Fittingly Celebrated Throughout the Country; Many Special Trains Run to Temporary Capital of Nation.

CO-OPERATION IS THEME OF WILSON'S ADDRESS

Course of Democracy for the Future Is Plainly Outlined; Points Out Great Good That Administration Has Done for Country.

(By Evening Herald Special Wire.)

Washington, Oct. 28.—(By Evening Herald Special Wire.)—The president's address at Shadow Lawn today, at the annual gathering of the National Association of Manufacturers, was the largest yet assembled at the temporary capital of the nation. The gathering was held in the presence of the president and Mrs. Wilson, and was attended by a large number of the nation's industrial leaders.

The president's address was a landmark event in the history of the nation. He outlined the course of democracy for the future and pointed out the great good that the administration has done for the country. The address was a landmark event in the history of the nation.
